15 Dear Sirs, I write to ask and yet demand that you not create a waste depository in Yucca Mountain, aka Snake Mountain. This is a Sacred Site for the Tribal Communities and they hold it close to their hearts. They have many herbs and spices there and use this land as a gathering place, therefore, please abstain from creating a site for waste and ruin this Sacred Place for the Peoples! Thank you for your cooperation in this matter. I am a Medicine Man in the Taino Community of Yukayeke Yamocuno Tanama of Puerto Rico and A Spiritual Guide for the Ku Karey Spiritual Circle, whose Leader is Ms. Marie Maweiraru Crooke from Bronx, New York. Thank you and please desist your actions and respect the Original Keepers of these Sacred Lands, the Indigenous Peoples of the North!! In Service and In Oneness, Bohike Danny Irokeku Miranda of Bronx, New York
